WINERY TASTING NOTES

Complex aromas of blackberry, cedar, forest floor, cocoa powder, pencil shavings, candied violet and cardamom spice emanate from the glass. On entry this wine is unctuous - flavors of black cherry, sweet vanilla, dark chocolate and plum combine with a viscous mid-palate texture; layers of fine grain tannins follow and crescendo into a forty-five second finish. Truly a dense, seamless Cabernet that shows beautifully now, but also boasts the best qualities to age extremely well.

REVIEW "This venerable winery has produced a beautiful 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon Coach Insignia. Its deep ruby/purple color is accompanied by notes of charcoal, background wood smoke, black currants, and a hint of graphite. Elegant and medium to full-bodied with sweet tannin, a seductive texture, and surprising opulence, it should drink nicely for 10-15 years."
