

UNITY

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

PHILOSOPHY

Certain world-class wines are defined by a single vineyard source, made unique by its particular, singular environmental conditions including soil and climate...

...Others echo a broader range of tones reflective of several sites, carefully chosen and woven together demonstrating the art of blending wine produced from more than one site, estate or appellation.

While Fisher Vineyards continues to build on the family's first generation successes that embrace the former philosophy, our second generation sets out to explore the latter in UNITY.

MISSION Sourcing from small family growers committed to sustainable farming practices, produce a wine that draws on the individual strengths of several vineyard sites to create a single harmonious effect that reflects the strengths of the region each vintage.

VALUES Much as this wine brings together a variety of components to have a single, powerful effect, it also brings together a set of unique values: shared time to celebrate life with family and friends; healthful commitments to ourselves, our communities and the land for which we care; flavors of local foods and the culture of food stories.

PRODUCER

The Fisher Family has been growing and producing wines in both Napa Valley and Sonoma County since 1973. Founded by Fred and Juelle Fisher, Fisher Vineyards today finds youth and new dedication in the second generation that includes three siblings: Whitney, Robert and Cameron.

UNITY is the result of our entire family working together; as a wine, it demonstrates our continued dedication to quality from one generation to the next.

TASTING NOTES

The 2015 UNITY Cabernet Sauvignon is an opulent wine with aromas of ripe cherry, cedar, cigar, and lavender. On the palate flavors of Santa Rosa plum are layered with caramel rhubarb and toasted oak, finishing with decadent notes of espresso and dark cocoa.
